

Congratulations, trainer! You've made it to the International Horn Competition of America at Colorado State University, 2024. We not only wish you the best of luck as a competitor – we also expect you to learn a lot from our judges, clinicians, vendors, and each other. To help you accomplish just that, we've created this scavenger hunt highlighting everything that makes IHCA the ultimate growth experience.

How it works:

Throughout the competition, you can accumulate points for completing a specific set of tasks. These tasks range from attending scheduled events or performances, to sharing posts on social media. For several in-person tasks, you can earn IHCA 2024 Trading Cards, which are limited in supply, and yours to keep! For tasks that earn trading cards, they will not be provided to you unless you request it as part of the scavenger hunt. You may only collect one of each specific trading card, no duplicates.

Your total number of points will be the sum of your trading cards and social media interactions. For all social media tasks, please use the hashtag #hornsonthego24 and tag us.

- Tasks:
- Follow us on Instagram (@IHCAmerica) and or Facebook
 - Pose for a photo with our IHCA Banner and share on social media
 - Attend the adjudicator preliminary round feedback session on Sunday
Professional: 1:30pm | GCH Lobby University: 4pm | Organ Recital Hall
 - All other tasks will be posted on our social stories, so turn on your notifications!

Winner Selection & Announcement:

The singular winner of the scavenger hunt will be the contestant with the most accumulated points during the competition. All contestants must fill out the online form by 12 noon on Monday, July 29 recording what tasks they have completed, and the number of trading cards collected. We will contact the winner to provide evidence of their points total, and their name will be announced during the IHCA Awards Ceremony. The form can be accessed using the QR code here, or by visiting IHCAmerica.org/scavenger-hunt

Prizes:

The four exhibitors of IHCA (Éditions Plamondon, Faust Music, Legacy Horn Experience, and Mountain Peak Music) have each kindly donated a variety of prizes. Additionally, the scavenger hunt winner will receive a free one-hour lesson from a member of our IHCA Board of Directors!
